

perfect sunglasses

material:

acetate, alain mikli's fetish material, derived from the cotton flake

the pluses:

-Zeiss mineral polarized or graduated photochromic lenses with a hydrophobic and anti-glare coating for unmatched visual comfort and sun protection

-the pure, sober and timeless starck-eyes style

-the new biolink hinge, inspired by the human clavicle. purer and more powerful, it is cut straight from the block of material.

-a 5th patent on the Biolink stops the hook from slipping.

-philippe starck's favorite frame

for who?

men between 40 and 55 years of age

where?

for the city or for travel

why?

to enrich the starck-eyes collection with a sunglass style.

-timeless

-combines comfort with the low-design style to design it, alain mikli and philippe starck revisited a best-selling sunglass, one of the first-styles that they designed :frame P9912.
